

BEN DOVER / LINDSAY HONEY BIOGRAPHY

Lindsay Honey has directed more than 150 adult movies around the world, including the only Scratch 'n' Sniff movie - Smells Like Sex. He is also responsible for launching the video line of the biggest adult company in the world, PRIVATE, by directing their first 7 big budget, high gloss feature films. Nowadays he is best known for directing and starring in the hugely successful Ben Dover 'gonzo' video series, a character led, reality based adult comedy-drama[!] which has so far achieved 20 number 1 chart placings in the adult video charts. The publication Adult Video News wrote: "In the great British tradition of the 'Carry On' movie, Ben Dover comes across as a latter-day Sid James. Importantly the injection of a bit of British humour doesn't distract the viewer from the action....."

Under his directing name Steve Perry he is listed by HUSTLER magazine as one of the top 50 most influential people in the adult industry today. At the annual 'Porn Oscars' in Las Vegas he has won awards for Best Gonzo Video, Special Achievement, and Best Speciality Video for Duke of Knockers 2. At the adult section of the Cannes Film Festival known as the Hot D'or, he picked up the award for Best Foreign Video, and in London, Best Selling Video at the '18' awards. At the Sex Maniacs Ball he accepted a Lifetime Achievement award for his career in the adult industry. He makes many TV appearances, mainly documentaries and chat shows, where his expert knowledge of the adult industry, and the often humorous stories about his 20 years in the business are both interesting and entertaining.

Due to the relaxing of the censorship laws the Ben Dover series is now available in the UK from licensed sex shops, and cable versions can be seen on The Fantasy Channel and hotels all over the world.

Being Ben Dover is a full time job for Lindsay, so it was a welcome change when he was asked by BBC Producer Ruth Caleb to screen test for a role in the movie 'Last Resort'. The film won the Michael Powell Award at the Edinburgh Film Festival and paints a bleak picture of life as an asylum seeker on the south coast. Lindsay however manages to raise a few laughs as Les, the smooth talking owner of an Internet porn business. Another role in the series 'Mostyn Fflynt' for S4C and the spoof documentary film 'Rabbit Fever' has allowed Lindsay to expand his straight acting talents.

Because of his relaxed manner and professional attitude to the unusual job he does, Lindsay is great value as a guest for TV and radio, and is always willing to be interviewed about what it's like to be the UK's most famous adult media star - Ben Dover.

Whilst in Edinburgh Lindsay was invited to do an impromptu talk to an audience of about 200 TV and film people about his life in the adult industry. It was so well received that he decided to take this aspect of his career further, and is now also a popular after-dinner speaker.
